Purpose

This document explains UYP's internal democratic procedures — how members participate, how leadership is selected, and how disputes are resolved.

Key Principles

- Meaningful member participation in party life.
- Transparent decision-making with documented outcomes.
- Fair and merit-based leadership selection.
- Independent and impartial dispute resolution.
- Regular internal elections in line with the Constitution.

Intra-party Elections

Reporting

Reports on intra-party elections and major internal decisions shall be published, subject to member privacy and legal considerations.
